

Aurora Cooperative Scholarship Winners Announced

The Aurora Cooperative proudly presents scholarships each year to students pursuing a college education and career in agriculture. The Aurora Cooperative board and management are well aware that the future of agriculture and the world's food supply lies in the hands of our talented youth. It is the honor and privilege of the Aurora Cooperative to play a part in growing opportunities for these young people to further their educations and agricultural aspirations.

The Aurora Cooperative 2012 scholarship winners are: $2000, Mark Lundeen, son of Bradley and Deb Lundeen, Minden, Nebraska; $1000, Seth Burge, son of Daniel Burge and Valerie Hochstein, Grant, Nebraska; $1000, Michael Krueger, son of Kevin and Claudia Krueger, Trumbull, Nebraska; and $1000, Ryan Pachta, son of Jon and Renee Pachta, Wamego, Kansas.

Mark Lundeen